

"THE NUREMBERG OF HATE AND THE NUREMBERG OF JUSTICE"

Program

This year marks the 80th anniversary of the Nuremberg laws and the 70th anniversary of the Nuremberg trials.

WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED? WHAT CAN WE DO?

5:00 – 5:40 Keynote speaker: IRWIN COTLER

"There are two often-ignored lessons which are "central to this historic juncture"—first, that the Holocaust and other genocides occur as a result of "state-sanctioned incitement to hate," and second, that genocide is enabled by "indifference and inaction" on the part of international bystanders

Q&A 10- 15 minutes.

6:00 -6:30 Dinner break - Video clips on all three topics. (6:10 - 6:35)

6:45 -7:45 Rotations

1. The Nuremberg Race Laws
2. The Nuremberg Trials
3. What have we learned?

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Eleanor Roosevelt story: one person can make a difference

7:45 8:15 p.m. WHAT CAN WE DO?

Patrick Mascoe: A local award winning teacher in Holocaust education

8:15 Closing Remarks